

MARCH 7, 2018

THE WEEKLY STALLION

The Parents of Agape Christian School are to be recognized for their efforts in bringing their wonderful children to school. Children are a precious gift from God and should always be in a spiritually positive environment, productive, loving, and nurturing home and school culture. Thank you parents for being a positive influence and teaching valuable qualities to your awesome children. Thank you for teaching responsibilities like being on time, completing homework, respectfulness and countless other essential qualities we see in your children every day. Example is not merely a part of it, it is everything.

Thank you parents,

Moises Gonzalez
